BE AN FHP LEADER!

Want to be a peer mentor for next year’s First-Year Honors students? This is your opportunity to gain leadership experience, acquire new skills, and make an impact on next year’s first-year students!

FHP Leaders receive 2 credits for their experience. You can read a full job description and download an application at: http://www.honors.iastate.edu/HonorsWebPage/current/leadership.php. Applications are due Monday, December 6th at 4pm in the Jischke Honors Office. Interviews will take place in January, and training sessions will be held between February and April. Any current Honors student is eligible to apply.

If you have questions or would like more details, please contact Jamie Beyer at jbeyer@iastate.edu or call 294-4371. Don’t miss this amazing opportunity!

TEACH FOR AMERICA

Educational inequity limits the life prospects of millions of children. Teach For being part of the solution.

Teach For America is the national corps of outstanding recent college graduates and professionals—of all majors, backgrounds, and career interests—who commit to teach for two years in urban and rural low-income communities and become lifelong leaders in expanding educational opportunity. After their two years in the classroom, Teach For America alumni move into every sector to continue expanding opportunity in the long term.

Right now, 8,200 corps members have begun teaching in 39 regions across the country while over 20,000 Teach For America alumni continue working from inside and outside the field of education for the fundamental changes necessary to ensure educational excellence and equity.

All majors and professional experiences. Full salary ($30,000-$50,000 depending on region) and health insurance. Federal student loans deferred.

Teach For America’s Next Application Deadline: Friday, December 17, 2010
