ULTIMATE FRISBEE
Come play in the HSB Ultimate Frisbee Tournament on Saturday, September 22nd at 3pm on Central Campus. Email Andrew Miller at andrewmi@iastate.edu for more information.

GRANTS, SCHOLARSHIPS & OTHER FUNDING
RESEARCH GRANTS FOR HONORS PROJECTS
Grants of up to $750 (University Honors Grants) are available from the Honors Program to defray expenses of your Honors Research Project. A description of the project and a detailed budget are part of the application process. Projects that are substantially completed are ineligible for funding - apply early in your project planning process! Detailed information, including applications, guidelines, and funding are available at http://www.honors.iastate.edu/current/scholarships.php or from Leah Greving in the Honors Office. The best grant applications are typed, free of spelling errors, and contain thoughtful and clear explanations of project goals and budgets. Work with your project advisor in preparing your application and call Laura Merrick at 294-0172 with questions or concerns. There is no specific deadline for University Honors Grants.

STEWART RESEARCH AWARDS
The Stewart Research Awards provide financial support of up to $600 for Honors students’ research projects. Full members of the Honors Program who are proposing research in any academic discipline may apply and the award may be combined with any other financial grant. Awards may be given to a student for a research project which is not designated by the student as his or her required Honors Project, although preference is given to those projects likely to result in a student authored or co-authored publication. The University Honors Committee funds a limited number of awards each year, and the competitive nature of these awards means that students must supply a letter of support from the project advisor. Research awards may be used for any expenses incurred during the project, including travel and equipment costs. Application materials are available in the Honors Office. The deadline is October 12, 2007.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR NATIONALLY COMPETITIVE SCHOLARSHIPS AND FELLOWSHIPS
Honors students—congratulations on your exceptional academic record! We invite you to consider applying for one or more of the prestigious national scholarships and fellowships for which Iowa State students with high-caliber scholastic credentials and records of leadership and engagement may be eligible. Information is provided on the National Scholarships and Fellowships webpage of the University Honors Program: http://www.honors.iastate.edu/current/scholarship_opportunities.php.

These award opportunities range from ones that support study abroad in hundreds of countries worldwide (e.g., Fulbright, NSEP Boren) and ones that provide funds covering research and education expenses while students are still undergraduates (e.g., Goldwater, Udall, Phi Kappa Phi Emerging Scholar) to ones that offer substantial funding to cover the cost of graduate school and associated experiences in the United States or elsewhere (e.g., Marshall, Rhodes, Truman, NSF Graduate Fellowship).

Because of your excellent academic performance, we think that you might want to consider exploring how these opportunities could fit with your interests and goals. While academic merit is certainly a starting point for these programs that recognize and promote excellence, in order to successfully compete for these awards, applicants must have outstanding records of leadership or community service, evidence of intellectual or creative pursuit, a compelling personal statement, clear plans for personal and intellectual development, and strong letters of recommendation from faculty who can confirm the student’s past endeavors and promise for future accomplishment.

If you are a Freshman or Sophomore, it's not too early to identify experiences that could help you be competitive in the future. Several of these award programs are open to first or second year students! If you are a Junior or Senior, be sure to contact the appropriate Fellowship Advisor right away, especially if the application deadlines occur in the middle of the junior year or beginning of the senior one. Schedule an appointment to chat with me or one of the other campus contacts for these award programs.

In the University Honors Program office, Laura Merrick functions as a Fellowship Advisor to provide assistance to high ability students—both Honors and non-Honors—who are interested in and potentially competitive for these opportunities. We encourage you to visit the websites for the individual award programs and to schedule an appointment with Laura (294-0172 or lmerrick@iastate.edu) to discuss your options.

UNIVERSITY LECTURES
The ISU Lectures Program, funded by GSB and the Office of the Provost, is committed to the philosophy that the function of the university is to provide "a market place of ideas." The Committee on Lectures works to bring to campus a broad spectrum of lectures as well as cultural and artistic events. For a complete listing and descriptions of Iowa State University Lectures Program Schedule of Upcoming Events please visit www.lectures.iastate.edu. Here is a brief listing of upcoming lectures in the next month:

Political Action Week
Monday, September 17-21, 2007, 11:00 AM @ Central Campus - Political Action Week is a bipartisan event addressing such topics as foreign policy, student concerns, domestic issues, and agriculture and the environment. The event includes presentations by candidates, elected officials and faculty, followed by discussions with the audience, all on central campus from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. daily.

Guantanamo Bay: An Inside Look at a Constitutional Crisis - Tom Fleener
Monday, September 17, 2007, 8:00 PM @ Campanile Room, Memorial Union - Tom Fleener is an attorney and former Guantanamo Bay military defense counsel and has been an outspoken critic and public commentator on the use of special military trials for terrorist suspects. He served as an Army JAG officer for eight years both prosecuting and defending soldiers around the world. A native Iowan and graduate of Ames High School, Fleener left the active Army in 2003 to take an appointment as an Assistant Federal Public Defender and was recalled to active duty in 2005 to represent alleged al Qaeda propagandist Ali Hamza al Bahlul of Yemen. During the two years in the Office of Military Commissions in Washington, D.C., he made several appearances before a military commission in Guantanamo Bay, until ultimately convincing Congress to afford detainees choice of counsel. Constitution Day Lecture and part of the World Affairs Series.

Wednesday, September 19, 2007, 4:00 PM @ LeBaron Hall Auditorium, Rm 1210 - Thomas Binder is President of Archer Daniels Midlands Research Division. He joined ADM in 1986 as a research scientist and has held various management positions in process development and fermentation research. He is author or coauthor of eleven patents and eight peer-reviewed publications. He currently serves on the Federal Advisory Committee for Biomass Research. Binder received his PhD in biochemistry from Iowa State University. Iowa State 150th Anniversary Alumni Lecture Series.

Popular Culture and Globalization in the Arab World - Christian Sinclair
Wednesday, September 19, 2007, 6:00 PM @ Alliant Energy-Lee Liu Auditorium, Howe Hall - Christian Sinclair is the director of Middle Eastern Studies at the School for International Training (SIT) Study Abroad, a division of World Learning. Sinclair is responsible for the development and management of educational programs in the Middle East and North Africa. Technology, Globalization, and Culture Series.

The Rise of the Creative Class - Richard Florida
Wednesday, September 19, 2007, 8:00 PM @ Stephens Auditorium, Iowa State Center - Richard Florida, Helen LeBaron Hilton Chair in Human Sciences Fall Lecturer, is one of the world's leading public intellectuals on economic competitiveness, demographic trends, and cultural and technological innovation. He is professor of business economics and the Academic Director of the newly established Centre for Jurisdictional Advantage and Prosperity at the Rotman School of Management, University of Toronto, a nonresident Senior Fellow at the Brookings Institution, and a Senior Scientist with the Gallup Organization. Florida is the author of the 2002 bestseller The Rise of the Creative Class and the more recent The Flight of the Creative Class, an examination of the global competition for creative talent. Florida's ideas on the "creative class," commercial innovation, and regional development have been featured in major ad campaigns from BMW and Apple, and are being used globally to change the way regions and nations do business and transform their economies. The Helen LeBaron Hilton Chair in Human Sciences Fall Lecture and part of a community-wide celebration of Iowa State's sesquicentennial.

Catastrophic Drowning of the Black Sea: The Science behind Early Flood Legends

William B. F. Ryan

Thursday, September 20, 2007, 7:00 PM @ Gallery, Memorial Union - William B. F. Ryan is the Doherty Senior Scholar at the Lamont-Doherty Earth Observatory and an adjunct professor of earth and environmental science at Columbia University. He is the coauthor, with Walter Pitman, of Noah's Flood: The New Scientific Discoveries about the Event that Changed History. Together these geologists gathered scientific evidence that could help explain the story of Noah and the great flood. Ryan and Pitman hypothesize that about 7,500 years ago the global warming that followed the last Ice Age caused seas to rise. When sea levels rose beyond a critical point, the Mediterranean Sea overflowed, deluging the Black Sea basin with salty water and destroying the fertile plains around the once-shallow freshwater lake.

American Chica: Two Worlds, One Childhood - Marie Arana

Thursday, September 20, 2007, 8:00 PM @ Sun Room, Memorial Union - Marie Arana, editor of Washington Post Book World, was born in Peru of a Peruvian father and an American mother. She is the author of American Chica: Two Worlds, One Childhood, which was a finalist for the PEN-Memoir Award and the National Book Award. She is also the author of a collection of columns, The Writing Life: Writers on How They Think and Work, and a new novel Cellophane. Arana will speak about her experience as a hybrid American - an "American Chica" - and how she came to terms with this split cultural identity. Part of the Latino Heritage Month Celebration.

Latin Music Celebration with Everardo Y Su Flota

Saturday, September 22, 2007, 8:00 PM @ Sun Room, Memorial Union - Everardo Y Su Flota is a Chicago-based eleven-person orchestra that plays six genres of Latin music, ranging from salsa to bachata. Part of the Latino Heritage Month Celebration.

The Yellow Rose of Suffrage - A One-Woman Play performed by Jane Cox

Sunday, September 23, 2007, 7:30 PM @ Fisher Theatre, Iowa State Center - The Yellow Rose of Suffrage, is a one-woman play about the life of Iowa State University alumna Carrie Chapman Catt. Jane Cox did her undergraduate work at Iowa State University and has now been on the ISU faculty for over twenty years. She is a full Professor and stage director for Iowa State University Theatre. She has been involved with over two hundred-fifty productions as an actress, designer, or director. Her one woman shows have been performed in over twenty states as well as the Kennedy Center, and the Smithsonian. Cox wrote The Yellow Rose of Suffrage through funding from a grant from the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences College. Part of the Iowa State Sesquicentennial Celebration.

Banned Book Jeopardy - The Game!

Monday, September 24, 2007, 7:00 PM @ Sun Room, Memorial Union - Join a Banned Book Week battle between two teams of literate panelists as they attempt to answer questions about banned books and their authors. Panelists include Ames Tribune Editor Dave Kraemer, Iowa Public Radio's Talk of Iowa producer and host Katherine Perkins, Associate Professor of English Fern Kupfer, Ames Tribune
Reviewer and Meredith Editor Steve Sullivan, Associate Provost and Professor of English Susan Carlson, and Professor Emeritus of English Dale Ross. Banned books will also be displayed and available for purchase.

Tuesday, September 25, 2007, 6:30 PM @ Alliant Energy-Lee Liu Auditorium, Howe Hall
Ambassador David A. Gross is the U.S. Coordinator for International Communications and Information Policy. Ambassador Gross began his career as a partner in a law firm specializing in telecommunication issues. In 1994 he left the firm to become Washington Counsel for AirTouch Communications, later acquired by Vodafone. In 2000 he joined the Bush-Cheney presidential campaign as National Executive Director of Lawyers for Bush-Cheney. He has a BA in economics from the University of Pennsylvania and received his law degree from Columbia University. Technology, Globalization, and Culture Series.

The Mess We're In:
How U.S. leaders Have Failed Us in the Middle East and What You Can Do - James Zogby
Tuesday, September 25, 2007, 8:00 PM @ Sun Room, Memorial Union - James J. Zogby is founder and president of the Arab American Institute (AAI), a Washington, DC-based organization that has served as the political and policy research arm of the Arab American community since 1985. For the past three decades Zogby has been involved in a range of Arab American issues. He was a cofounder of the Palestine Human Rights Campaign, the American-Arab Anti-Discrimination Committee, and Save Lebanon, a private non-profit, humanitarian relief organization. Following the signing of the Israeli-Palestinian peace accord in Washington he served as copresident of Builders for Peace, a private sector committee to promote U.S. business investment in the West Bank and Gaza. Since 1992 Zogby has written a weekly column on U.S. politics, Washington Watch, for the major newspapers of the Arab world. He is the author of What Ethnic Americans Really Think and What Arabs Think: Values, Beliefs and Concerns. Part of the World Affairs Series.

Entrepreneurial Considerations in a Global Economy:
Competition, Culture, and Currency - Christopher Clover
Wednesday, September 26, 2007, 6:00 PM @ Alliant Energy-Lee Liu Auditorium, Howe Hall - Christopher Clover has served as the president and CEO of Mechdyne Corporation since founding the company in 1996. Mechdyne is a global leader in virtual reality systems, with such clients as Boeing, Conoco Phillips, Ford Motor Company, John Deere, NASA, and the U.S. Army. The company developed the first commercial CAVEÆ to be driven with personal computers, the first rear-projected curve screen systems used in immersive visualization applications, and the world's first reconfigurable immersive room. Clover earned a Ph.D. in mechanical engineering and an M.B.A. from Iowa State University. Technology, Globalization, and Culture Series and part of the Iowa State 150th Anniversary Alumni Lecture Series.

Forging New Ties: Shaping a New U.S. Policy Toward Latin America
Joy Olson and Vicki Gass
Wednesday, September 26, 2007, 7:00 PM @ South Ballroom, Memorial Union - Joy Olson, executive director of Washington Office on Latin America, and Vicki Gass, the organization's senior associate for rights and development, will discuss the WOLA's initiative to help shape the foreign-policy debate in the upcoming presidential campaign and lay the foundation for Latin American policy in the next administration. This initiative is the result of a consensus from people across the political spectrum and will be available for distribution at the event. Washington Office on Latin America has worked to shape U.S. foreign policy toward Latin America since 1974. Part of the World Affairs Series.

An opportunity for you to team up with some friends to take on other teams in a "Jeopardy like" format of competition to win cool prizes and even earn a chance to represent Iowa State at the Regional Tournament of the bravest and brightest trivia champs in four states at the Regional Tournament, with a chance to represent the region for the National Title. College Bowl Teams consist of up to five players, minimum of three. A registration form is attached and the deadline for registration is Tuesday, October 23rd. Just fill out the attached registration form and turn it into the East SOS of the Memorial Union or e-mail it directly to stevesat@iastate.edu. Due to the timeframe of the tournament and questions available we must limit the field to the first 24 teams that turn in their registration.

WINGSPREAD CONFERENCE
ATTEND A MEETING OF THOUGHTFUL INQUIRY
Wingspread conferences, sponsored by The Johnson Foundation, bring together experts and other individuals who are leaders in the development of policies specific to the conferences. Honors students at Iowa State are among the students from only a dozen other schools around the nation who have special status as Wingspread Fellows and are invited to apply to attend the conferences at no cost to themselves. Students attend as observers to the deliberations, but have plenty of opportunity to interact with the experts on an informal basis. In fact, it is not necessary to be majoring in the area of the conference topic. The Foundation is interested in encouraging students to become educated citizens and, thus, have opened these conferences to any interested student. Wingspread was built in 1939 and designed by Frank Lloyd Wright. Wingspread is located on Wind Point, a peninsula on the western shore of Lake Michigan in Wisconsin. For further information on the conference or facility go to http://www.johnsonfdn.org/tour.html. Please review the conference listings below and consider becoming a Wingspread Fellow. ALL OF YOUR EXPENSES ARE PAID FOR THE CONFERENCES. Contact Laurie Fiegel, lfiegel@iastate.edu, or 294-4371, AS SOON AS POSSIBLE if you are interested in attending one of the sessions listed below.

GETTING INTO JISCHKE AFTER HOURS
In order to have after-hours access to the Honors Building, see Linda in the Honors Office and sign up for access. You then will be assigned a card. If you already have a university-provided keycard to enter your residence, the Honors Building system will be coded to allow you entrance using that keycard. If you do not have a keycard, you will be issued one that you will be able to pick up at the Honors Program
Office. It may be as long as two weeks for the new keycards to be issued or for current keycards to be coded into the system.

You will be granted access to the Honors Building as long as you are a member of the Honors Program in good standing and you must abide by the After Hours Building Use Policy. If you lose your access card there is a $20 replacement fee.

THE AFTER-HOURS BUILDING-USE POLICY FOR THE JISCHKE HONORS BUILDING! Three words: USE GOOD JUDGEMENT! If you need further elaboration, read on:

These are a few rules and guidelines that all students must follow when using the Honors Building after business hours. These are based on the Building-Use policy, ISU building-use regulations, ISU security regulations, and Jischke Honors Building supervisor policies. In general, after-hours use of the Honors Building is a PRIVILEGE granted by ISU security and the Building Supervisor. This privilege can and has been revoked for student noncompliance of the building policies and guidelines. It is for the benefit of all that these guidelines be followed. HSB, as the Honors student representative body, has the responsibility to make all Honors students aware of these policies and to enforce them. These common-sense rules MUST be followed; by not doing so, you directly jeopardize the privilege of Honors Building use after hours for all students.

---Entrance after hours is by access card only. Card readers are located at the Northeast door and the South door.
---Do not post any signs, flyers, etc. on the walls or woodwork.
---Pick up trash before you leave.
---You may not sleep overnight in the Honors Building.
---Only members in good standing in the Honors Program are allowed in the Honors Building. You may not allow non-honors students into the building after hours.
---NEVER prop an outside door open - it violates the university building-use policy and it sets off an alarm.
---If someone is studying, respect their right to study quietly - that's why the building is here.
---Don't use the phone for lengthy personal conversations. It is for the benefit of all that these guidelines be followed.

NOTE: There is to be no alcohol or illegal drugs in the Honors Building at any time. Violators will be referred to the Dean of Students for disciplinary action.
